MEMORANDUM FOR: DCI Admin Staff

FROM : Richard Lehman, Vice Chairman
National Intelligence Council

SUBJECT : Travel to Honolulu, Hawaii - [REDACTED]
Assistant NIO/USSR-EE

REFERENCE : Memorandum for the Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies, from the President, Dec 16, 1981, Subject: Travel by Government Officials, Including Foreign Travel

1. It is requested that approval be granted for [REDACTED] Assistant NIO for USSR-EE, to travel to Honolulu, 18-20 March 1982.

2. In reference to the memorandum from the President regarding an explanation of why resort meetings which may involve unnecessary costs and raise legitimate questions of unnecessary expenditures cannot be avoided, the following explanation is offered:

Professor Alexander Dallin of Stanford University and the former NIO/USSR-EE Arnold Horelick asked [REDACTED] in July 1981 to be the commentator on their panel at the Western Slavic Association meeting in Hawaii. The meeting will deal with foreign policy, succession politics, public opinion, social change and ethnic conflict in the USSR over the next ten years. [REDACTED] agreed to do so, contin-gent upon approval by the Agency. Professor Dallin and Arnold Horelick would probably not be able to replace [REDACTED] on such short notice. Since most of the participants on the panel come from the West Coast, the choice of Honolulu as the site of the meeting was presumably based as much on "rotational" as on "resort" considerations.

[REDACTED]
Richard Lehman
